Description

This luxury home is in an established gated development with an eight rais garden, a five pool swimming complex including a training pool and scuba pool, a tennis court and a three hole golf course situated on the edge of tidal mangroves. Situated on the east coast of Phuket only a few minutes from the Heroines Monument, with two marinas only ten minutes drive and three golf courses within 20 minutes drive, this development is serviced by a new four lane road connecting with the main road. The development has a clubhouse with restaurant, gym and management office. This property has three bedrooms, an office, a roof terrace with sea views and a private plunge pool. The tasteful interior has full teak floors, floor to ceiling closets in the bedrooms and kitchen cabinets to the ceiling, and can be sold fully furnished. Managed by an experienced hotel management company, this property has excellent rental prospects.
